ABOUT THE EVENT

American Indians in Texas at the Spanish Colonial Missions (AITSCM) will host our annual Pecan Harvest Celebration this year on December 7, 2024 in the Dawson Family Hall of the Witte Museum.

Embrace the spirit of resilience with us as we look back at all we have accomplished in our 30th year of service.

We will also continue our tradition of commemorating an individual with the Mission Heritage Award, a tribute dedicated to someone who embodies an unwavering commitment to our community.

AIT-SCM has been a cornerstone of the San Antonio community; fostering parental development, healing generational traumas, and preserving the cultural traditions of San Antonio's original inhabitants through our many programs and initiatives.

Your support plays a crucial role in our continued success. We look forward to gathering with you!

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

For more information and to secure your sponsorship please contact AITSCM's Director of Development: Sabrina San Miguel at sabrinass@aitscm.org or by phone at (210) 227-4940.

A person in traditional Native American regalia, including a feathered headdress and a red vest, is performing with hula hoops in a dimly lit room. The background is dark with purple and blue lighting. The person is holding several hula hoops, some of which are in motion, creating a dynamic scene. The overall aesthetic is vibrant and cultural.

THE EXPERIENCE

Pecan Inspired Foods

In keeping with tradition and honoring the cultural significance of the pecan, the meal for the night will be a celebration of this cherished native food source. The pecan, a staple in indigenous cuisine and a symbol of resilience and sustenance, will take center stage in various dishes, deserts and sides, offering a flavorful connection to our beloved community.

Silent Auction & Raffle

At AITSCM's Pecan Harvest, we will host a silent auction featuring hand-crafted pieces by local Native and allied artists. Each piece reflects the beauty, tradition, and creativity of our community. Proceeds will directly support the artists and fund AITSCM's cultural arts programming and advocacy efforts for Native and Indigenous communities.

Native Performances

Above all, we strive to create unforgettable experiences and continue our celebrations through the power of movement and tradition. Pecan Harvest will include native performers of a wide variety of backgrounds. Our attendees will be immersed in the beauty of native cultures, music and performances, leaving them with lasting memories and strengthened community.
